TERMS & CONDITIONS:

As per the Muhammad Ali Boxing Reform Act (federal law), each commission must present to every professional boxer/contestant a medical disclosure upon issuance of a Federal Identification Card.

As a professional boxer/contestant you should be aware that this sport includes many health and safety risks, particularly the risk of brain injury. Therefore, it is strongly recommended that a professional boxer/contestant undergo the necessary medical exams that detect brain injury. If you need further information about these exams, please contact your local boxing commission.
